SPRINGDALE.

Scott Fletcher of Rectorville was transacting business here Saturday. Mrs. White came down from Portsmouth to spend a few weeks with her son, Elder T. J. White, of Tollesboro.

Mr. and Mrs. John Otto, Sr., entertained a number of friends and relatives at their beautiful home here to an elegant dinner Sunday in honor of the home coming of their son, Mr. J. W. Otto, Jr., and his lovely bride.

Burgess Taylor at Plumville Thursday last tried to explain why we farmers only got 1% per pound for sheep, 2s for eattle, 10s for wool, 3s for swine, 20s for corn, 40s for wheat and 35s per day for farm labor in 1896, claiming overproduction. Bah, Burgess, the Grangers are not fools, nor have they forgot the sad experiences of the last never-to-beforgotten Administration. We are now -and for some years past have beengetting 4s for sheep, 5s and above for cattle, 23¢ to 25¢ for wool, 4¢ for swine, 40s and 50s for corn, 70s for wheat and 75¢ and $1 per day for farm labor. We also had civil liberty in Kentucky, and we are decidedly of the opinion that we can stand the Sugar Trust, the Coaloil Trust and a few other Trusts, including the Maysville Livery Stable and the New York Ice Trusts, but we never will stand the Bryan and Goebel Trusts. We propose to contribute our little mite to bury them out of sight forever November 6th. The pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Kimbal of Adams county, O., was the scene of a brilliant assemblage Saturday evening in honor of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Lucy, to one of our most popular young townsmen, Mr. John W. Otto, Jr. The house and grounds were beautifully decorated with autumn's colorings, and lights hung in conspicuous places presented to the admiring guests views as in fairyland. Promptly at 6 p. m. the bridal couple, unattended, entered the handsomely decorated parlor, where Clinton & Jackson Sts., CHICACO, ILL they were met by their Pastor, Rev. Mc-Cord, who read the impressive marriage service of the M. E. Church. After congratulations the guests were invited to the large dining-room, where an elegant wedding feast, consisting of such choice viands as only those who have attended such affairs in old Adams county can fully realize. Music and conversation with gay laughter chased the happy evening away, and it was a late hour ere the guests departed. Guests were present from Cincinnati, West Union, Manchester, Aberdeen and Bradyville, O., Maysville, Falmouth and Springdale, Ky. The bride's dress was a lovely creation of chiffon over white silk and she carried a bunch of white OFFICE-No. MI WEST SECOND STREET

FAMOUS PAINTINGS OF NEW ENGLAND LIFE

The December Ladies' Home Journal will publish the first of W. L. Taylor's great paintings picturing the olden days in New England. It portrays 'The Traveling Shoemaker," passed and gone so long that he is but a memory. There are eight paintings in the series, which it is conceded stand for the very highest achievement in illustration. Mr. Taylor has spent two years on the work—a commission from the editor of The Journal.

OUR TRADE EXPANDS

Exports of Farm Products and THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 1st, 1900, Manufactures Growing.

AUSTRALIA AND ARGENTINA BUYING.

Foreign Demand for American Coal Increases - Traveling Men Are Prosperous and More Are Employed-Wages Are Higher.

Washington, Cct. 22 .- A balance of exports of merchandise in favor of the United States, nearly 40 per cent. larger than last year, is shown by the commerce returns for September. The imports of foreign merchandise fell from $70,711,965 for September, 1899, to $57,563,906 for September of this year, while exports advanced from $109,886,677 to $115,634,210. The record, for the nine months ending with September, shows an excess of merchandise exports amounting to $407,-225,895 which is $90,649,793 larger than the corresponding balance in 1899, and is about $13,400,000 larger than the balance of 1898.

Exports of Hardware.

San Francisco, Oct. 22 .- The increasing exports of American hardware to the Philippine, to China and to Australia are becoming phenomenal. There is no foreign market using as much American hardware as Aus- Delays tralia. Every steamer leaving for there takes thousands or dollars' worth of hardware specialties, and leading import firms at Sydney and Melbourne have their representatives in this market who buy hardware almost exclusively in large quantities.

Exports to Argentine Heavy. New York, Oct. 22.-The steamer Kaffir Prince has just taken Buenos Ayres another large cargo of manufactured goods, among which figure principally upwards of $65,000 worth of agricultural implements, $10,505 of steel rails, more than $10,000 of manufactured iron and equally as large consignments of electrical material.

Foreign Demand for Coal. Chicago, Oct. 22 .- W. P. Rend, probably the largest individual coal operator in Chicago, is just home from Europe where he has been investigating the foreign market for American coal. He says: "I took a great many foreign orders. There is a great market for our coal opening up in England and Europe. The only fault I find is that there are not enough ships to supply the demand. We need more American vessels."

on arrangements for a new line of steamships sailing from New Orleans to South American ports. They are needed owing to our trade expansion.

THE TRAVELING MAN AGAIN.

ther Refutation of the Charge That He Is Not Prosperous. Chicago, Oct. 22.-Chicago business men continue to write to local papers refuting democratic charges that the traveling man is not prosperous. J. W. Butler, president of the J. W. Butler Paper company, says:

"As compared with four years ago, w have increased the number of our traveling men about 25 per cent. Our sales in the country have increased about one-third in amount to what they were four or five years ago and the collections also are very much improved.
"Relative to the political aspect I find that none of our traveling men, with the exception of one or two, will vote for the Bryan ticket the coming election."

More Men Employed. Chicago, Oct. 22.-Carson, Pirie.

Scott & Co., one of the largest wholesale dry goods houses in the country, are now employing 418 people more than were on their payrolls in 1896. The 418 include men in every line, from teamsters and freight handlers to high salaried traveling men and department managers.

Higher Wages Paid.

Wire company here have prepared figures on the number of men at work and the amount paid in wages compared to the conditions four years ago. The company is paying out at he Joliet mills alone $100,000 per month more in wages than it did three years ago. Four times in three years the wages of employes in these mills have been raised. The company is selling 40 per cent. of its product in foreign countries. Formerly German manufacturers sold 95 per cent. of the wire nails used in Japan, and Accurate Index to Prosperity.

Chicago, Oct. 22 .- The receipts of the Chicago post office increased during September $688,565, or 14.7 per cent., as compared with the same month last year. Postmaster Charles U. Gordon is elated over the prosperity of the country. For the first ten working days of October the increase in the receipts has been $251,500, or an increase of 11.54 per cent, over the same period last year.
